

1 Delegate Pullen.

2 DELEGATE PULLEN: Mr. Chairman, I hope you will 3 forgive me for my intransigence, but I have studied six
4 languages and taught three and I have learned more about 5 the English language in the last six years than I have in 6 all of my years,

7 All I want to know here, does that phrase
8 eliminate from the public schools and the institutions of 9 higher learning of Maryland, from any particular intent of 10 this provision?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, the Chair will state again
12 what it understands to be the effect of the amendment,
13 and that is that Section 4.20, at least the first sen-
14 tence of it, would have no application whatsoever to the 15 state public school system or institutions of higher 16 education.

17 Delegate Pullen.

18 DELEGATE PULLEN: Sir, that means yes. I accept 19 it.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Sybert.

21 DELEGATE SYBERT: Mr. Chairman, the first
